MOVIE MATINEE

“HIS GIRL FRIDAY”

Sat., Oct. 28, 2:00 p.m., VC, Classroom 5

In this fine comedy, Cary Grant plays Walter, a conniving newspaper editor, and Rosalind Russell is Hildy, the newspaper’s star reporter. Hildy also happens to be Walter’s ex-wife. Hildy is betrothed to a very dull new husband, wonderfully played by Ralph Bellamy. Walter, however, is going to do all he can to prevent the marriage. (He really wants to re-wed Hildy.) You won’t know who marries whom until the end, but you are sure to laugh out loud as you enjoy this film that wowed critics when it was first released. One person called it the best comedy he had ever seen, and another gave it four stars — and he doesn’t use many stars when reviewing motion pictures. (Review by Earl Johnson.) 1940. Black and white. Approx. 92 mins. Not rated. ACV is able to show this film because it is currently copyright-free and in the public domain.

HALLOWEEN TRICK-OR-TREATING AT ACV

ACV is a popular trick-or-treat area for many local youth and their families. Members living in CH, DH, WG and RV often greet the Halloween guests in the lobby of their building as a group. If you live in other areas of the Village, if you leave your porch light on, it indicates you would like to have Halloween visitors. Many neighbors get together to welcome the young visitors with their treats.

HEALING HEARTS SUPPORT GROUP
Thur., Nov. 2, 10:00 a.m., DR
After the loss of a loved one, we experience a wide variety of feelings and emotions. The ever-changing emotions we experience with grief can catch us off guard, causing us to act out of character, or differently than our typical personality and demeanor. We all need a support system to help us as we move through our grief journey. While family and friends are vital, unless they have experienced a close personal loss, they most likely don’t fully “get it.” That is where support groups can become a valuable resource. In a support group, you will find other people also living life after loss.

Grief support groups offer companionship and understanding from others who have experienced a similar loss, and are experiencing the similar challenges that living with grief brings.

In a culture that often avoids talking about loss, support groups give you the opportunity to share your story openly and guilt-free. You also have the opportunity to hear the stories of others and talk about coping day-to-day, as well as on the most difficult days of our grief journeys.

If you are looking for a support system in your grief journey, consider joining Emily Rant, MSW, a licensed social worker and bereavement counselor with Haven Hospice, a not-for-profit provider, who leads this monthly support group at ACV.

PHARMACY OUTREACH MINISTRY

2. Soap and wash cloths - Honduras and local

May God bless you as you support this ongoing mission.

RUSTIC SHOP NEWS

The month of Sept. has passed very fast and Christmas is less than two months away. The window will begin to look like Christmas in the next few weeks, but we will also still have turkey, Mayflower, pilgrims, and other Thanksgiving items on display to celebrate a traditional holiday season. We have new one-of-a-kind baby quilts being put out daily and the 100-year centennial cookbooks; both make wonderful gifts. We have men’s and women’s shirts and caps, as well as fall and Christmas flowers by Donna Allen, and crystal bowls, smaller plates, and some very nice china and stemware. We have a new shipment of Christmas cards available by the individual card or by the box! Come and shop today for your holiday shopping, or just stop and browse. We plan on leaving our ceramic Christmas Trees and other decor out until the end of the season and beginning of 2018! Hope to see you all soon!

The cases will then be delivered to feed the hungry in Live Oak (Love INC) and in inner-city Jacksonville. Order forms are available on the VC information booths and at the Village Grocer.

The Samaritan’s Purse Operation Christmas Child Shoebox project is also underway. There are pamphlets on the VC information booths with labels and shopping ideas. Have fun packing a shoebox and sharing Christ’s love with a child! Shoeboxes should be dropped off at the church office by Nov. 17 along with $9 for shipping.

It is always a treat to walk by the photo display near the OPR room and enjoy the photographs taken by ACV members and staff. Currently we are enjoying a variety of scenes of fall in all its many phases.

I know each year as the Christmas decorations go up at ACV I see you out enjoying the sights and I have seen many of you with your cameras, so why not share some of your photos. See page 3 for details. This display is not limited to photos taken at ACV, but wherever you have traveled during the Christmas season.

Have you had your flu shot? CMC has vaccine available and wants to be sure you have received your shot.

Phillip Moses, with Raymond James Financial Services, presented a most interesting update on the economy and financial planning. If you missed the program, it was videotaped and will be available on TV2. Watch the schedule to see when it will be shown. Also check the table outside the library for printed information that was available during the presentation. Contact information is available on the Professional Services page attached to this FNN.

It was great to have the 60-plus members of the Amen Choir, from Lakewood Baptist in Phoenix City, AL, with us on Mon. morning in the BC. This group shared their love of music and the Lord with appreciative ACV members. Thank you, we look forward to your next trip to ACV.

Member Services Tip of the Week

Christmas card inserts are available at no charge from Member Services. Members often like to tuck these in the cards they are mailing to give their friends and family a glimpse of ACV.

Church Office – 658-5344

SPEAKER: Dr. Timothy N. Setzer
TEXT: Matthew 16
MESSAGE: “The Way of the Cross”

This Sun. evening there will be a hymn sing at 6:00 in BC, led by Rick Phipps, for those who want to worship but are not able to attend the Central District Rally at the Lake City First A.C. Church.

The Central District of FL A.C. churches is having a rally on Sun., Oct. 29, at 4:00 p.m. The rally will be held at the Lake City First A.C. Church and the speaker will be Rev. George Waterman. There will be a covered dish dinner following the service. There is a sign-up sheet in the main VC foyer for those who need transportation to the Rally.
In checking the calendar today, I am reminded that we are entering the last week in Oct. Can it really be time for Halloween? Can it really be time to turn the clocks back soon? Can it be time to fill out the blue Monthly Volunteer Reports for Oct.? And finally, can it be time for the rest of our “snowbirds” to return to the ACV nest and resume their volunteer opportunities? Most surprising of all, can it be only 28 days until Thanksgiving and only 60 days until Christmas? Obviously, the answers are all YES!

For those of you who have been waiting for the results of the Monthly Volunteer Hour Reports, following are the latest reported figures: out of reports from approximately 243 volunteers, the total volunteer hours amount to 26,625 from Jan. to Aug. (2017). Broken down even further, that amounts to 3,328 volunteer hours per month or 760 volunteer hours per week. You can see just how important it is to fill in the monthly reports and return them to me. If you are unsure of your total monthly volunteer hours, please “guessimate.” Oct. reports are due in my office by Mon., Nov. 13, either by mail or in person. Blank reports can be picked up on the corner table in the IC. Thank you all for your wonderful cooperation!

Volunteer needs this issue are as follows: persons to cut 8” x 8” squares of padding for potholders; someone (or couple) to call BINGO at GSC; assistance at the DH desk. In-depth details are listed under the FYI column in this FNN.

It’s nice to be important, but it’s more important to be nice.

We wish a happy birthday to Jennifer Coombs on the Oct. 31.

Unfortunately, an important person was not mentioned last week: Carroll Polk is our BA treasurer once again this year and we are most grateful.

Q: Why couldn't the leopard play hide and seek?
A: Because it was always spotted.

CARTER HOUSE NEWS
Rev. Ray and Donaline Brown recently enjoyed a trip to Martinez, GA and Lexington, SC to celebrate some special family occasions. The Browns arrived just in time to celebrate their youngest grandson’s (Daniel Hofmeier) ring ceremony held at his high school that evening. On Fri. evening, while attending the rehearsal dinner, Donaline had the wonderful privilege to spend extra time with her youngest great-granddaughter, Briella Leigh Bolduc, who is already nine months old. On the following afternoon, the Browns traveled with their daughter, Esther; her husband, David; and daughter, Gracie, to Lexington, SC to attend the wedding of another grandson (Jonathan Bolduc) as he exchanged his vows with his sweetheart, Savannah. They were engaged at the end of the Browns 50th wedding anniversary celebration about a year before at the Village. While in GA, the Browns attended a couple of soccer games of their youngest granddaughter, Gracie Ray Hofmeier. The time with family was special and far too short, but an extreme blessing! The Browns were thankful for time with family, but it was good to get back home.

We had a rather busy week last week with a baby shower, a renewal of wedding vows, and a special birthday celebration! Staff member, Toni Patterson was overjoyed with the outpouring of gifts, cards, and generosity at her baby shower last Tue. Crystal Delcastillo had a variety of refreshments and baby decorations as we watched Toni open each gift and card! She was so overwhelmed with everything, she could not speak, so decided to go around to all present and give them a most genuine hug! We will welcome “Baby Gunner” this coming Mon., Oct, 30. Please keep Toni; her husband, DJ; and children, Preston, Austin, and Haighen, in your thoughts and prayers!

On Thur., Ida Wells, was very pleased to have her family here on her special 99th birthday to help her continue her celebration (which started last weekend): Bill and Gwen (daughter) Robinson and grands, Bill and Chris Robinson. Ida’s family was in and out all week to make her 99th extra special! On Thur., they dined at the Village Café.

On Thur. afternoon we were blessed to observe Frank and Myrle Sinclair renew their wedding vows on their 60th wedding anniversary. The room was set up very nicely and the family brought in beautiful plates and serviettes plus two large decorative posters signifying their diamond Anniversary. Daughter, Mareth Gunstream, played “Unchained Melody” as Frank and Myrle walked into the ceremony. Bill Leithead offered an opening prayer and Pastor Jack Jones officiated. Frank beautifully and genuinely read his vows to Myrle and then their niece, Maureen Erdis, eloquently read Myrle’s vows to Frank. Bill Leithead led everyone in the Lord’s Prayer and Mareth played the closing music. During the reception, Frank and Myrle cut the first piece of their anniversary cake and then the staff and friends served the cake and punch to all in attendance. It was a beautiful time together. What great role models we have in Frank and Myrle to live their unconditional love to each other in front of our eyes, day in and day out! Congratulations to the Sinclair’s on their 60th wedding anniversary and your beautiful vow renewal celebration. It was absolutely beautiful!
We were pleased to have Dick Grillo perform and share his music program with us on Fri. afternoon! This week, Gilbert Macias and his wife, Leidy, are presenting the series: “A Conscience Captive to the Word of God” each day, Tue. through Thur. at 10:00 a.m. We always look forward to have Gilbert and Leidy join us! We look forward to a Ride-About tour on Sat., worship services on Sun., Crafts and fill “Trick-or-Treat” bags on Mon. in preparation for the Wee Care children “parading through DM in costume, as well as older children dropping by on Tue. evening.

Vida Massengill’s 103rd birthday is Wed, Oct. 25. She has been celebrating all week and it will continue at least through the weekend! Her niece, Judy Norris of NC, and her nephew and his wife, Tony and Cheryl Massengill, are here through Thur. More on Vida’s celebrations in next week’s article!

Happy Fall Y’all!

Thur. evening DH residents gathered to honor one of our residents who endeared herself to all of us. Tina Dery was the brains behind the DH coloring fellowship on Sun. afternoons. Now Audrey Barfuss sets it up for anyone who cares to take part. It is open to residents from anywhere in the Village. Tina always has a smile and upbeat greeting for those she meets. Helen Whitfill and Dorothy Cook teamed up to lead about a dozen residents in a sing-along of some older and some more familiar songs. Helen led the singing while Dorothy Cook accompanied on the piano and favored us with a selection on the accordion. Martha Kuitems, from RV, read a fitting tribute to Tina. It was a great time of fellowship for all.

On Sat. around 6:00 p.m. the fire alarm got our attention. We soon learned it was not a drill as everyone was evacuated out of and away from the building. Neighbors helping neighbors was a good time to practice the power of the Holy Spirit in the lives of God’s children.

Pray for one another. We would love to share in your special happenings so we can rejoice with you. Leave a note in the FNN box at the DH desk, or the FNN box in the IC lobby, see me in person, or phone me at 658-2015. God bless you.

We are happy to welcome Paul and Anita Mellor back from their summer home in RI. Should we thank them for bringing us this nice cool weather? We want to say goodbye to Steve Pynacker, the young man who stayed at the Mellor’s with Miss Kitty and Mr. Big Boy. You may remember him as the cat, which last summer had a standoff with a rattlesnake, until Steve called for backup. Steve has had a busy fall clearing and cleaning up after our visit from Irma. We know he was also a great help to Gail Chapman, next door neighbor of the Mellor’s, clearing debris and assisting with mowing. Steve is a long-time friend and neighbor to Bill and Gayle Jones when they lived in Bradenton. In his spare time this summer he helped them too; he will be missed.

We eagerly look forward to reading your news; to place it in the FNN please call 658-1418 or email gaylebill3@aol.com.

With no birthdays or anniversaries to be celebrating during the coming week, we will have plenty of time to engage in persistent prayer for several of our neighbors.

Jan Forney and Mary Lou Forsythe continue to improve as the results of rehab sessions at GSC, according their husbands. Russ Terjung is recovering from surgery after breaking his hip in a bicycle accident. Getting better slowly but surely is how Alice Rumbaugh is progressing following knee replacement surgery. Also remember to pray for health improvements for Doloris Anderson and recent ET resident Bev Bell.

We enjoy seeing our newest Millsite Lane neighbors, sisters Susan and Jan Wesley, as they accompany their dogs on daily journeys. Both say they are very pleased with their new apartment, after having lived for the past couple of years in CH. They moved to ACV in 2015 from Palm Coast, FL, after living for several years in CA. Susan was born in OH, and Jan began her life in AZ, so those girls have really covered the nation.

Joyce Comerford was seriously happy when she arrived home late Mon. after spending several days in Martinsville, VA. Her return flight into Atlanta was late, and she felt certain that she had missed her flight to FL. But that airplane’s departure had also been delayed and she was overjoyed to not having to spend another night away from ET. Joyce had gone to VA to visit with sons, Jeff and Jim, and was quite pleased to see that Jim “looks very good” as he continues to battle cancer.

I heard this by a radio preacher a couple of days ago: “Always be what you is. Because if you ain’t what you is, you is what you ain’t.” Now that’s some hard sayings. I ain’t sure I is fully grasping the meaning, but I is trying.

Last week I had absolutely nothing to report, even if I stretched the truth a bunch! This week I must report on an event that stretched my imagination to the limit. Hector Olivera, renowned organist, played this fantastic organ that could do everything musical except bow for an encore! In Lake City, at Florida Gateway College, I was entertained to the limit, fascinated actually, by the organ that Mr. Olivera played on. It was not one-of-a-kind, but very few were made probably because many people, organist in particular, would feel intimidated learning how to use all the options it had. Nevertheless, the not-so-many attendees appreciated the music and the stories that were told throughout the evening.
Maybe some stories of that evening will be heard frequently enough to entice some stay-at-homers to attend these events to learn something new and watch your favorite TV program another night.

SPECIAL FEATURES
BIO SKETCH ON DOTTIE STONE
by Janice Chapman
Dottie (of DH) was born in Wilmington, NC to Red and Marie Stone. When Dottie was 2½, the family moved to Jacksonville, FL where she went to first grade through high school. She went to St. Leo University in St. Leo, FL and graduated with a major in medical administration.

Dottie met and married a man from Lake City. They had two children. Her son, Rob, lives in NE and her daughter, Christian, living in NC. This marriage ended in divorce. Dottie then married Max Ravndal, who adopted her two children. She continued to live in Lake City. Her husband was in real estate and Dottie worked in social services. Regrettfully, after twenty years of marriage, her husband passed away. Subsequently, she moved to Gainesville, where she worked mainly with young children in day care. She met and married Bill Taylor, whom she stated, “played a huge part in my life.” With him she had many opportunities, which greatly expanded her knowledge of the world.
Sadly, she was again widowed in Nov. of 2016.

Unable to live by herself, Dottie went to NC to be near her daughter. This did not prove to be satisfactory. Dottie had known about ACV for a long time, and in conversation with her son, she learned he was thinking

CANE GRINDING
Have you ever been to a cane grinding? Cane grinding is held in the fall and Carl Driver, who lives near ACV, has invited ACV members to come to his property to experience cane grinding. He does not know the exact date yet, but please call Member Services at 658-5400 if you would like to be notified when the cane grinding will be held and if you want a ride on the ACV bus. I have a distant memory as a young child of attending a cane grinding and the joy of tasting the syrup when it was ready.

What is Myth-Information?
Myth-Information is a widely held and/or promoted, but false, piece of information.

Myth: Depression is a normal part of the aging process.
Fact: Experiencing depression is NOT a part of the normal aging process. Many seniors find meaning and purpose in their lives and don’t struggle with sadness, regret, grief or despair. Depression in later life is a category of depression that occurs after the age of 65. Depression can strike as a result of life stressors or medical issues. Early detection and immediate treatment can bring recovery. About 2 million adults experience a late-onset depression in their geriatric years.

If you or a loved one are experiencing symptoms of depression for more than two weeks, please seek out a mental health professional or contact your physician. Here are symptoms to look out for:

- Aches and pains that don’t go away
- Avoidance of regular activities
- Chronic sadness
- Difficulty concentrating
- Eating more or less than usual
- Feeling helpless or hopeless
- Inability to focus or make decisions
- Irritability or agitation
- Lack of energy
- Loss of interest in things and/or people
- Slowness of movements or speech
- Socially withdrawn or isolated
- Sleeping difficulties
- Thoughts of death or suicidal thinking
