ANNOUNCEMENTS

NOTICE REGARDING ALL NEW NARCOTIC OPIATE PRESCRIPTIONS Submitted by Pharmacist John Nicely

On March 21, Governor Rick Scott signed law HB21. This law went into effect on July 1, 2018. Please be aware that this will affect all new narcotic opiate prescriptions. There are a few things you should know:

1. EForce, Florida's prescription drug monitoring program (PDMP), will be tracking all controlled prescriptions for abuse and trafficking purposes. Pharmacists and physicians will look on this website before they prescribe or dispense any new prescriptions. This website will show how many physicians the patient is currently seeing, how many pharmacies the patient is getting prescriptions filled, and how soon prescriptions are filled.
2. There are now only 3 or 7 days of therapy allowed on opiate prescriptions. If the patient is obtaining a 4-7 day prescription, the physician must write on the prescription: "ACUTE PAIN EXCEPTION."
3. If the prescription is for non-acute pain, and is excluded from the definition of acute pain, the physician must write "NONACUTE PAIN" on the prescription. The words "NOMALIGNANT PAIN" will override the law and the standard of practice for these patients.
4. The only exception to this law are hospice patients.
5. The person picking up the prescription will have to provide a photo ID that can be scanned or copied.

All pharmacies and physicians will comply with this law, effective July 1, 2018. Ask your pharmacist or physician about specifics of this major change.

En route, the animals encounter bad weather, life-threatening situations, and even potential mates. 1986 action and adventure. 75 mins. G. The Village Church is able to show this movie because it is covered by their CVLI license, which also prohibits the advertisement of the movie's title and actors' names.

SUWANNEE COUNTY SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS OFFICE TO PROVIDE ASSISTANCE WITH VOTER REGISTRATION OR TRANSFER OF PRECINCT

On Tuesday, July 17, Jennifer Kinsey with the Suwannee County Supervisor of Elections Office will be at ACV to answer questions about voter registration and to register people to vote in Suwannee County; or, if you need to change your precinct, she will be available to assist. Please bring a photo ID with you.

PHOTOS IN PHILLIPS CENTER

Submitted by Gary Kueppers

The next set of photos is now up in the hall of the Phillips Center. The theme is "flowers." We had 39 photos contributed by 14 members and employees of ACV—the best showing yet. I thank all those who sent in photos, but, since there are only 8 frames to display them, I had to select the best ones. You can see them on display now. All of the photos will be eventually made into a slide show for broadcasting on TV2. Unfortunately I have no control of when they will be shown. Please remember that I am now looking for photos for the next theme, which is "celebrate fall." Get out there and create some neat photos and go through your old photos for nice ones, too. You can send them to me any time you wish. They are needed before the end of August. Please send them to me by e-mail at gkuepp1945@windstream.net. Thanks!

Gary Kueppers 386-658-6442

NO MEMBERSHIP COUNCIL MEETING

The Membership Council does not meet in July and August. Meetings will resume in September.

NO MEMBERSHIP COUNCIL MEETING REBROADCAST

Included on the July 1–7 TV2 Guide are three instances of the most recent Membership Council meeting from June 21. Due to technical difficulties, the meeting recording is not usable and cannot be rebroadcast. We apologize for any confusion or disappointment this may cause.

AMBASSADOR RESIDENT REFERRAL REWARDS

We have two new members who have moved to ACV all because two of our members have shared how much they enjoy living here. Welcome Marilyn Ludington to ET and Wanda Hodson to CH.

Talk to a friend or family member about how much you love living at ACV. If they come to take a guided tour and then move to ACV, you too will receive a check from ACV for $200! We look forward to showing and sharing the wonders of ACV with all of your friends. Just have them contact Pam Stahl at 386-658-5933 or 800-647-3353 to set up their tour. If you would like for us to make the contact with your friend(s), call and give us their information and we will be happy to do so. If your friends call ACV, be sure to have them let us know who referred them. Remember, the reward comes following a move to ACV, not just coming for a tour.

SUWANNEE DRIFTER'S KAYAK

Thursday, July 12, 7:30 a.m.

Our regular Horton's Landing to Highsmith paddle, plan is to be in the water by 7:30 a.m. Last week after seeing Steve Dykehouse contemplating the Bethel Creek whirlpool at the end of the lagoons, I started paddling back. I was amazed by the ability of the water to relax me, as I almost dozed off at the 4th lagoon! As we came down river to the White Beach, Albert Yale announced he had taken a snooze, awoke by his kayak against the bank! Discussing with an email friend about the many ways to self-soothe, I now realize how therapeutic these floats are. ACV's many activities offer comfort and support, emotionally and physically! Hope you are involved! Next drift...! Kathy Bochow

MEMBER SERVICES

Ann Thompson—386-658-5400

Independence Day 2018 was celebrated in a number of venues at ACV. A very moving program of music and patriotic readings was presented at the SMR/DR. This program featured the debut performance of The Grace Notes, under the leadership and direction of Joan Wittman. Members of the group include, Mardelle Nasshan, Charlene Reas, Jan MacNeill, and Dolores Moore. Special thanks to each of these talented ladies who were all patriotically dressed and sang with us and for us. We hope to enjoy your gift of music and inspiration on other occasions.

Chuck Maxwell shared a tribute to the flag with a background of patriotic music. Nancy Moral shared information about the group, Daughters of the American Revolution, of which she is a member, and told us what she would think her patriot ancestor would want us to think about today. Refreshments were served and a time of fellowship was shared. A number of people were very moved by a reading by Joan Wittman and wanted copies. We are including it in the "For Your Information" section, on page 7.

MEMBER SERVICES TIP OF THE WEEK

ACV Volunteers are so much a part of every aspect of Village Life and we appreciate them so much. If you have an ACV Post Office Box the Directory will be placed in your mail box. If you are an off campus member you may pick up your directory after Monday, July 16 at the Member Services Office. As you have read in the FNN, the Rustic Shop is still in need of scrubbies. If you would like to help make them please let us know. We want to thank everyone who has helped and continues to help make one of our biggest sellers, which are the scrubbies. We have another need at this time; we are in need of some lap quilting for baby blankets. The Rustic Shop will provide the quilting materials, threads, needles, and hoops all ready for you. If you need some help, I will be happy to assist you; or you can quilt by machine.

SUWANNEE RIVER STUDIO

Submitted by J  Mordon

Suwannee River had a great week, with a very messy Pour-aholics Party, many visitors, and a surprise graduation. Congratulations to Anne Donohoe and

Bill Bruce for completing Art 201. Art 201 is five paintings in a portfolio, totally student-driven, no assignments or due dates. Bill and Anne did beautiful work, so we surprised them with party horns and brownies.

We had visitors from out of state this week, and even out-of-nation (Haiti). The Studio is open to visitors Tuesday—Friday mornings, from 8:30-11:00 a.m. Members are working, but are always glad to take a break and show guests around. Membership is limited, but we have a few slots available. Guests are always welcome and special art events for your group can be arranged. Contact instructor Jé Mordon, 229-375-9276.

CHRISTMAS DOLL PROJECT

The dolls are on display in the cabinet at the Rumph Dining Room. Dolls are on sale to assist with the cost of the project. Please contact Phyllis Mastro at 386-658-3056 if you would like to assist.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES

Eleanore Catarious—386-658-5251

Have you received your FNN from last week? Have you benefitted from reading your FNN? Would you be interested in contributing news to the FNN?

These FNNs are delivered by caring volunteers who have devoted their time every Wednesday to seeing that you receive the latest news from around the Village. Of course, without the efforts of current contributors to the FNN, in addition to the editorial staff of four, this periodical would not be possible. The designer is Jessica (Jessi) Niver, of CVH, and the printing and collating is done in the MS/IC area. We appreciate all that you do and have done for us, and thank you as you continue to provide us with our "window to the Village."

Food for thought: Do you have talents that you haven't explored? Are these talents worth sharing or learning more about? Why not choose two volunteer possibilities and pursue them? There is nothing wrong in changing your mind if opportunities don't work out. Volunteering can be beneficial both for ACV and you, the volunteer. Those who give of themselves and their time tend to enjoy better health, and the odds are that they will also live longer. There are many opportunities to serve and to find your niche. Volunteers are still needed in the Retail Shops, CCC, and the Archives. Please call me for available days and times.

It's time again to record your hours for June and mail them to me by Friday, July 13, for tallying. Just fold the blue Monthly Volunteer Hours Reports in half and mail them to box 4304 – no envelopes and/or staples necessary. Thank you!

*"Friendship isn't a big thing – It's a million little things."

DACIER MANOR

Submitted by Beth Smith

We so appreciated "Grace Notes" singing last Tuesday while our members were entering the dining room for supper. What a nice treat! We also had a nice Fourth of July as we saw a lot of red, white, and blue! Janice Chapman enjoyed the 4th with the Chapman gang at grandson, Andrew Chapman's home. Peggy Howland also spent the day with her daughter, Sophia Howland, in Live Oak. Caitlyn Boyd, dietician, led our monthly food advisory meeting and always has a listening ear to our wishes and wants! The very faithful "Suwannee Pickers" played for us on Friday morning, and Pastor Jack led our weekly Friday afternoon Bible Study. Cindy Crews led exercise class on Monday morning with Libby Weaver joining our faithful regulars, Jane Bonning, Janice Chapman, Jan Gurniak, and Frank Sinclair (we missed you Myrl Ellis)! We always look forward to bingo on Monday and Thursday afternoons. This Thursday we will attend the monthly Memorial Service at GSC, at 10:00 a.m. to remember our dear friends.

We welcome Joy Whitmore to Dacier Manor 1110 from Wilson Gardens! Joy has been living at the Village since 1991 and has been very active at ACV! We welcome you with open arms and we are glad you are here, Joy! Luree Wotton enjoyed attending her brother, Larry Wotton's birthday party with her two sisters, Verna Simpson and Martha Jean Emslie last week!

Several had visitors and they signed the guest book: Jim and Norma (Della Straszynski), Betsy and Brian Trinder (Margaret Trinder), Kandra Bell and Randy Spradley (Wayne Spradley), Vic and Debbie Perry (Isabel Slover), Melvin and Marcia Parker (Elvena Johnson), Pat Kilgo (Virginia Kilgo), Denise Chandler (Marie Andrew), Paul Hoffman (Marjorie Hoffman), and Art Sheldon (Anita Sheldon). Next week Gary and Babs Martin will have their anniversary (July 20).

Several staff members have enjoyed vacations and others are looking forward to theirs. I appreciate the staff who are willing to step up and help us cover during these times!

DOWLING HOUSE

Submitted by Gladys Ezell

I had a special treat last week. My nephew, Dr. Bill Harbour, and his two daughters came from Miami for a short visit. Dr. Harbour, an ophthalmologist, has found a cure for cancer of the eye, after working many years to find this cure. They even took time to take me to Taco Bell before they left. His mother, my sister-in-law in Dallas, and I made lots of fun trips together, and I do miss her.

Now I am looking forward to my friends from Lake Charles, LA coming to take me to Taco Bell and to St. Augustine to eat at O'Steen's Restaurant and get my delicious butterfly shrimp!

EDGEWOOD TERRACE

Dick Barkley, Reporter

No birthdays to be observed during the coming week, but we will have a couple of wedding anniversaries to be celebrated. Ruth and Sherwood Sawyer will likely be dancing a jig or two on Sunday (is dancing even permissible on Sundays?). Then, on Monday, Christine and Jesse O'Brien will be cooing between bites of cake.

Hey, listen up. If you are reading this on Wednesday evening, there are only a few hours before you are invited to join many of your neighbors for our monthly second Thursday breakfast at the Village Café. I constantly hear ET residents say, "oh, I forgot" when asked to explain their absence. Balderdash! They don't forget. They are just prone to be afflicted with premeditated anti-social behavior. And there is absolutely nothing wrong with that. They are among a fairly large group.

I would suggest that those who would like to join our fellowship breakfasts to mark your calendars right now. Yes, the calendar which you always look at each night to see what is to be available for your attendance on the following day. Now, mark these dates for the rest of 2018; write 9:00 a.m. - Village Café: July 12, August 9, September 13, October 11, November 8, and December 13.

Have you ever wondered just how something is out of whack? What is a whack? And how do you put something into it? Stay cool, if you can.

PARK OF THE PINES

Bob Reynolds, Reporter

Does the date remind you of any particular roadside store, one where you got your traveling fix on some soda, bag of chips, and/or maybe a chocolate or two? How about a high sugar bun or possibly ½ doz. little donuts? Sorry, I can't continue this because I'm drooling on my keyboard!

Yes, we're back, and Mrs. Liz Reynolds is quietly packing and unpacking items from her move from across the street to "our home," approx. 140 feet away. I thought I'd help her out by getting the Mayflower Moving Co. to help with the move, but being more practical than I, she gently said she could do it with a little help from me. And that's what she got. Actually, she got so much help from her brother, Roy, and her sister-in-law, Tiny, that I pretty much felt I was in the way most of the time. Works for me!

Peggy Spangler sent me this nice info: the first weekend in July we had a visit from our oldest son, Jim, and wife, Hope, from NC. It was a surprise for my husband, Evan. As he had been sick, they wanted to come down and see how he was doing. Evan was totally surprised and really enjoyed their visit. Sunday morning in church Jim also played the piano for Evan, one of his favorite hymns, "Great is His Faithfulness." The last time they were visiting here Jim played this hymn on the Village Church piano with Bob Story on the organ. They played so beautifully together and had all of his family in tears.

I hope I'm not repeating myself, but these snippets from children were neither retouched nor the spelling corrected.

1. The people who followed the Lord were called the twelve decibels.
2. The epistles were the wives of the apostles.
3. Christians have only one spouse. This is called monotony.

"I AM THE FLAG" BY AMOS HURLEY

An excerpt of this article was read on July 4, 2018 during the ACV Independence Day celebration by Joan Whittman.

Amos Hurley, of Montclair, CA, wrote the following in reply to the gift of a U.S. flag which had flown over the Capitol in Washington, D.C. The narration, in which he lets the flag do the talking, has been widely acclaimed throughout the nation.

"I am the flag of the United States of America. I was conceived in the dreams of liberty and in the hopes of freedom. I was designed by the hands of Betsy Ross, and her sewing basket was my cradle. Though I was never an orphan, I was adopted by the Continental Congress in 1777 and proclaimed the National Emblem of a nation newly born on this continent, fighting valiantly for survival and destined to bring to all mankind a new concept of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

I have been many places and have seen many things. I have witnessed every event of American history. I was there when they fired the shot heard around the world. I was there in the late twilight at Fort McHenry and inspired Francis Scott Key to write the immortal "Star Spangled Banner," now our national anthem.

I saw Molly Pitcher take the cannon swab from the hands of her dead husband and help carry on the fight for freedom. I felt the biting cold at Valley Forge and gave warmth and comfort to General Washington and his tired and hungry Continental Army.

I rode with Ethan Allen and the Green Mountain Boys. I saw the signal that started the midnight ride of Paul Revere.

I was flown above the decks of Old Ironsides and from the masts of the Yankee and the China Clippers. I blazed the trail with Daniel Boone and Davy Crockett. I led the settlers coming west and crossed Death Valley in a covered wagon.

I was carried through the halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli by the United States marines. Once I fell to the ground at Custer's Last Stand, and there were no living hands left to pick me up. I galloped up the slopes of San Juan hill with Teddy Roosevelt and the Rough Riders of the United States cavalry.

I stayed with the boys until it was over, over there, and on the battle fields of the Marne, Chateau-Thierry, St. Mihiel and the Argonne forest. I saw many of the youths and manhood of our nation fall and lie still in death. They had given their last full measure of devotion. The war was over for them forever, and I kept my lonely vigil over their graves and stayed to watch the poppies grow amid the crosses, row on row, in Flanders Fields.

I was raised by five brave men during the "Hell" of Iwo Jima. I waved farewell to the four immortal chaplains who went down with their ship and to honored glory.

I am many things to many people. I am an inseparable link in the chain that binds men to God and country; each link welded in the fires of Purity by the Sacred Hands of God, Himself. And because I am on the side of God, the Godless would destroy me, but they dare not, because I am protected by the mighty land armies of the nation, the powerful and deadly fleet of the navy, and the screaming eagles of the air force, watching and waiting to swoop down and destroy anything that would harm me.

To some, I am yesterday, today, and tomorrow; to others I am a glorious child, to some a grand old man, or a most gracious lady. I have several names. I am called the "Red, White, and Blue;" "The Star Spangled Banner;" "The Stars and Stripes," but I am most commonly known by a nickname given me by an old sea captain, who called me "Old Glory."

I have not changed much in my 200 years. I still have my original 13 stripes, but as each state came into the union, a new star was proudly added to the constellation of my blue field. It started with 13 stars; now there are 50.

Many more things I would like to tell you, but we haven't time, but I do want to see you again. I am easy to find. I am everywhere. I am in the homes of the poor, in the mansions of the rich, in Independence Hall with the Declaration of Independence, and the Liberty Bell, I am in the White House with the President. I am in all the churches, cathedrals, and synagogues, in the Council of the Boy and Girl Scouts of America, in all the schools where they pledge allegiance to me.

I draped the caskets of our nation's heroes, borne to their last resting place; the caskets of Presidents, generals, admirals, humble privates, and the unknown soldier. Wherever free men gather, wherever there is justice, equality, faith, hope, charity, truth, or brotherly love, there too am I.

A short while ago I was flown over the nation's Capital, gazing proudly across the land of the free and waving to the homes of the brave; then I was lowered and given by a grateful nation to a great congressman, who brought me across the continent to the shores of the Pacific and presented me to a group of Veterans of World War I at Patriotic Hall in the City of the Angels to become their official flag and, with fitting ceremonies, was carried by tired old hands and posted in a place of honor near the Holy Bible and there I shall remain until (like the old soldier) I'll just fade away and be retired by time alone and may history NEVER write MY obituary for I am the Stars and Stripes FOREVER. I AM OLD GLORY."

THANK YOU

I truly say "thank you" to those of the ACV "family" who sent me birthday wishes. I now know I'm not alone, and of course I always know I have God.

Phyllis Mastro
