CELEBRATING A REMARKABLE MILESTONE: MARY CRAWFORD MARKS 50 YEARS OF SERVICE

Advent Christian Village is delighted to celebrate an extraordinary milestone as Mary Crawford reaches an incredible 50 years of dedicated service to Advent Christian Village. You are cordially invited to honor Mary's legacy by joining us for a special anniversary celebration on Friday, June 19, at 2:00 p.m. The event will be held in the Sawmill and Depot rooms in the Phillips Center, providing a wonderful opportunity to reflect on Mary's many years of service and to celebrate this rare and meaningful achievement.

Throughout her tenure as she has served as the executive assistant for three Village president/CEOs, Mary has exemplified dedication and excellence, becoming a valued and respected member of the ACV family. Her contributions have not only supported the organization's mission but have also enriched the lives of residents and team members alike.

Please join us in celebrating Mary Crawford's inspiring milestone and in expressing our heartfelt gratitude for her 50 years of service to Advent Christian Village. Light refreshments will be served.

Representatives from Old Oaks Cybernetics, Ameris Bank, and the Live Oak Police Department will present very useful and necessary information at a Lunch & Learn on Monday, June 8.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT ...?

Friday, June 12, 1:00 p.m. - DR

Join us Friday, June 12, at 1:00 p.m. in the Depot Room to listen and participate in a discussion of the following questions:

- 1) Please explain Psalm 69:33, "For the Lord hears the poor, and does not despise His prisoners."
- 2) Occam's razor (also Ockham's razor) is a problem-solving principle attributed to William of Ockham (c. 1287–1347), who was an English theologian. His principle states that among competing hypotheses, the one with the fewest assumptions should be selected. Wouldn't this say that a natural explanation for the universe and life is the simpler and more plausible explanation than believing in God creating everything?
- 3) Can Christian lawmakers compromise with what they know is wrong? Should Christians insist that others need to do what is right?
- 4) Is denying or changing your sexual identity immoral?

Bruce Arnold will host, and Chris and Annabel Christiansen will be our guest speakers. They will share

Registration takes just a moment and allows readers of all ages to participate, and you get a small prize! As you read and return books to the Dowling Park Public Library this summer, you’ll earn tickets that can be used to “purchase” exciting prizes from our prize store. Look in the glass display case for all the current choices.

Be sure to register and keep track of the minutes you spend reading throughout the summer. Registration numbers and reported reading minutes are important statistics that libraries collect and report each year. These numbers help demonstrate the value of library services and programs in our community and play an important role in securing future funding and support for the library.

Weekly Programs for Kids

Starting June 3, explorers can “Dig, Read, Discover!” every Wednesday at the JKPL. Enjoy archaeology and history-themed stories, hands-on activities, and creative crafts designed for a variety of ages. Storytime and activities for preschool and elementary-aged children begin at 10:00 a.m., while special programs for older kids and teens ages 10–17 start at 1:00 p.m. Join us each week for a summer full of discovery and adventure!

Kids Can “Read Down Your Fines”

Kids and teens can turn reading time into fine-paying time with our Read Down Your Fines program! Participants ages 17 and under can earn $1.00 in library bucks toward overdue fines for every 30 minutes spent reading in the JKPL. It’s a great way to enjoy a good book while reducing eligible overdue fines at the same time.

Our first feature on June 5 follows a daring archaeologist as he races across deserts, explores ancient ruins, and faces dangerous traps in a quest to recover a powerful biblical artifact before it falls into the wrong hands. Can you guess the movie? It is rated PG for action violence and some intense, frightening imagery. Enjoy the adventure on the big screen in our very own library “theatre,” complete with fresh-popped popcorn.

Member Services Tip of the Week

The Information Center has a form available called “Leaving the Grounds” that residents can fill out when leaving campus for an extended period of time. This information is helpful in many ways, such as in case there are damages to your home during a storm, or family or friends are concerned because they have not seen or heard from you. The information on the form will provide needed contact information in case a need arises. This information can also be confidential, should you request it to be. Please feel free to stop by the Information Center to request a form.

Scam Tip of the Week: Charity Scams

While there are numerous legitimate, worthy charities doing great work, some scam artists seek to take advantage of the charitable spirit of others. Imposters will pose as representatives of a legitimate charity or promote a fictional charity in order to solicit funds, which they then pocket. Be sure you know that the charity soliciting money is legitimate before donating. Check to see if the charity is registered with the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services at www.floridaconsumerhelp.com or by calling 1-800-HELP-FLA. You may also contact the Better Business Bureau’s Wise Giving Alliance at www.give.org or Charity Navigator at www.charitynavigator.org to determine whether the charity has any complaints against it.

If you believe you are the victim of a scam, file a complaint with the Attorney General’s Office online at www.myfloridalegal.com or by phone at 1-866-9-NO-SCAM. You may also file a complaint with the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, which acts as the State’s consumer complaint clearinghouse, at www.floridaconsumerhelp.com. We had a hilarious time talking and laughing last week! Some of us worked on crochet and plastic canvas projects, and others painted a beautiful tree with pink blossoms using ... Q-tips!

There was a great show-and-tell of the crafts people worked on with Kathy for the past few weeks: painted cans holding flowers, framed pine cone creations, and handmade cards. Impressive creativity!

This week Sue will be teaching us how to make adorable gift boxes, and some of us will be making them specifically for the good guys at GSC in preparation for Father’s Day.

Come join us this Friday. Whether you work on gift boxes or your own projects, it’s all good. We’d love to meet you! Get in on the fun!

Now in our New-to-Us section is the book Under His Wings: Protected by God in China by Agnes C. Lawless. Donated by Margi Nichols, this book tells the story of her parents who were missionaries in China before and during the Communist takeover of that country, and how they and their young family were able to leave.

We have an audiobook section, paperback rack, and many movies and TV series on DVD for check-out. Magazines can be borrowed without being checked out; just return them when you finish looking at them.

Please have your ACV ID badge available when you come to check out books and DVDs. We are located in the schoolhouse room between the OPR and IC. Our drop box is located around the corner across from the restrooms (beneath the bulletin board), and you may return books and DVDs there at any time.

STEPHEN MINISTRY:
Christ Caring for People Through People
Darleen Hinrichs, Reporter

Too often, people who are dealing with painful emotions either never talk about them or stop talking before the healing process is complete. We sometimes view handling our struggles alone as a sign of strength, but that is not what Scripture teaches. Galatians 6:2 reminds us, "Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ."

Stephen Ministers live out this biblical calling by walking alongside those who are hurting, offering compassionate, confidential care during difficult seasons of life.

Has God gifted you with empathy and a caring heart? If so, prayerfully consider whether He may be calling you to serve as a Stephen Minister. Or, if you know a mature Christian who is a good listener and values confidentiality, encourage them to consider this ministry.

The next Stephen Minister training class begins in September. Applications are available at the Village Church office and Member Services. If you are interested but have questions, please contact one of the Stephen Leaders, Robin Copeland or Darleen Hinrichs.

As always, please pray for ACV's Stephen Ministry as it seeks to bring Christ's love and care to those who are hurting. Thank you!

Stephen Ministries is a worldwide Christian ministry of trained lay people who provide confidential one-to-one emotional and spiritual support to care receivers who are going through some of the most difficult days of their lives. The goal of ACV's Stephen Ministries is that no one at ACV will hurt alone. This is another way ACV seeks to express Christ's love to those we serve. Please keep Stephen Ministries and all involved on your prayer list. Questions? Call 386-658-5358 or speak to a Stephen Leader: Robin Copeland or Darleen Hinrichs.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

BUTTERFIELD ACRES

Jack "CrackerJack" Dixon-386-658-2113

"Learn to do good, seek justice, help the oppressed, defend the cause of orphans and fight for the rights of widows" (Isaiah 1:17).

This will be a short message today, as many things are going on at the Dixon house, and we are heading out for doctor appointments.

I did find out that the stray dogs are not gone — four more puppies have now appeared. Will it ever end?

I'm getting calls asking when Roy Ames' service will be. No information has been announced.

Please pray for our national leaders and for those who are hurting in our Village.

Remember: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap" (Galatians 6:7). God bless.

CARTER HOUSE

Mary Gamble-334-790-9066

Greetings, everyone! I hope you've all had a blessed week.

Welcome to our new Carter House neighbor, Terry Grover! And happy birthday to Terry on June 4 and to Gloria Seidenberg on June 9.

It's June already! This year is nearly half over. The beginning of June also marks the start of Hurricane Season. I attended the Lunch & Learn: Hurricane Preparedness session presented by the American Red Cross. Here are a few tips shared during the meeting:

- Before — Prepare and get ready now.
- During — Know how to respond.
- After — Know how to recover.
- Pack a go-bag with essentials for you and your pets.
- Stay informed and know where to go if evacuation becomes necessary.
- Stay in touch with your family so they know your whereabouts.

It was a very informative meeting. I encourage you, if possible, to attend ACV meetings — they are always full of helpful information.

I also attended Donuts with David. David Klumpenhower gave an excellent presentation. Here are some of the key points he shared:

- Speed limit reminder — 25 mph for all vehicles, including golf carts, and everyone must come to a complete stop at stop signs.
- Smoking policy — The only designated smoking area on ACV grounds is the gazebo across the parking lot in front of Carter House and Wilson Gardens.
- New smoking area — Another designated area is located near the Lodge.
- Fiber cable — Coming soon for all of us.
- Outdoor cats — No feeding except at the feeding station on the Woods Trail.
- Consequences — There will be consequences for anyone who fails to follow these rules.
- Dining updates — Menus at the dining room and the Lopin' Gopher will change soon as ACV hires an Executive Chef.
- David Klumpenhower will be leading us through the book of Ruth during the Sunday morning worship services at the Village Church throughout June.

Please remember to return all carts to their designated places when you're finished with them so other residents can use them when needed. Please continue to keep each other in your prayers. Look for something positive in each day — even if some days you have to look a little harder. Please feel free to contact me with any information you'd like to share in our FNN. Thanks, everyone, and have a blessed week.

DOWLING HOUSE

Cora Huckaba-850-464-7113

Good morning, neighbors. I am not afraid of stormy seas — I've learned how to sail my ship. Storms can be frightening with thunder and lightning. I once knew a lady who was so afraid that she would crawl to the middle of her bed and lie there shivering until the storm passed. I haven't feared storms since God became the captain of my vessel. This world we're living in is like a stormy sea. The question is: Who is the captain of your ship?

Have you been to Cornerstone Park? It's a beautiful place to visit and stroll through. The Scripture engraved in stone reminds us that if we have the living water flowing in us — if Jesus Christ lives in our lives — what a wonderful reminder that is for each of us.

The event "What Does the Bible Say About ...?" was very informative, with a lively debate of questions and answers among those attending. If you want to know where your soul goes when it leaves your body, ask God — He is the only one who knows. It is His plan.

There are many plans and updates happening around the Village. One of the most important is that we will soon be getting a good Wi-Fi system. Menu changes are coming, and there are many new programs at Copeland Community Center.

There is a 4th of July celebration coming up. There will be a cornhole toss with men's and women's contests, and prizes for the best players. Ladies, put on your aprons and dig out Grandma's recipes — bake your best apple pie from scratch and whip up your best potato salad. No cheating! Blue ribbons and prizes will be awarded. Judging will take place before the event begins. For more information, contact Donna Carbaugh at (352) 262-0312. Free tickets will be available at the

I wonder about my neighbors. Come on now, don't be shy. Share your news with us. We'd love to hear about your activities.

We welcome Tanya Green to our house, all the way from Keystone Heights, Florida. If you meet her, smile and say hello.

On the funny side: A lady yelled into the phone, "Where is my newspaper?" The voice answered, "It will come tomorrow! Today is Saturday." "Oh," the lady said, feeling sheepish. "That's why I was the only one at church today." Laugh a lot — it's good for your heart.

EDGEWOOD TERRACE
Verna Piper—386-658-3753

I've been reading a book, The Big Book of American Facts, and am learning some interesting information. The first chapter covers government and crime. Here are a few interesting facts:

1. The U.S. Library of Congress has a record of every tweet that has ever been published on Twitter.
2. In California, prison inmates are used to fight forest fires.
3. A Nebraska senator once tried to sue God.

Next week we may be hearing cheers or laughter coming from Camp Suwannee. There are over 70 youngsters enjoying Creation Arts Camp during the day. They will be having a "show-and-tell" Friday evening at 6:30. If you're wondering what they have been doing all week, go to the pavilion and see for yourself.

GOOD SAMARITAN CENTER AND DACIER MANOR
Bruce Arnold—386-658-5550

On Sunday, May 31, Evelyn and I visited our former church, the Beachville Advent Christian Church near Branford. It was good to see all our friends whom we miss, and to hear a solid, challenging message from the Word by Rev. Michael Lupo. Pastor Mike shared from John 5:1–9, where Jesus healed a lame man by the pool of Bethesda. He noted that the blind, lame and paralyzed people gathered at the pool might remind us of people we see every day who are spiritually lost. Do we ask these people what they want, as Jesus asked the lame man? Lost people need someone to care — just as Jesus cared for the man at the pool. Do we care about the lost like Jesus does?

While we were away from GSC, Gaye Martin spoke to our residents. Her text was Romans 5:8, which tells us that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Her message was titled "When I Got Framed." Sue Donnelly and Richard Johnson shared in song, and our regular volunteers — Dick McClaine and Jack and Barbara Dixon — made sure everyone was able to attend the worship service.

Marie Brian, Betty Burnett, Solanges LeFleur, Helen Kent, Fred Sponcil, Barbara Thompson, Roydon Ames, Lawrence Robinson, Alice Cornick, Geneva Perry, Teresa Zimpfer and Dexter Miller will be remembered at the GSC Memorial Service on Wednesday, June 10, at 10:00 a.m. in the Magnolia Dining Room. Family, friends, relatives, fellow GSC and DM residents, and ACV staff and members are welcome to attend.

Tuesdays have once again become "Bake Club" days. Residents at GSC gather to bake delicious treats to enjoy and share. This past Tuesday, Latoria and Christina helped residents dip strawberries in melted chocolate — which sounded and tasted wonderful. After baking, we meet in the Magnolia Dining Room for devotions, and they always save something for me. That's a treat!

Joel and Charlotte Evans joined us on the afternoon of May 29. They visit regularly, sharing songs and the Word of God. They also participate in the GSC worship service every second Sunday and visit Dacier Manor often as well.

GSC also receives monthly visits from the JKPL, and recently the Doggie Dude Ranch has been bringing lively, tail-wagging friends to brighten our days. It seems there's always something happening at GSC and Dacier Manor.

RIVERWOODS
Patty Gianceskis—386-658-2024

Hello from a front porch with a peaceful, pretty meadow view. We want to offer a warm welcome to our new neighbors, Linda Brannon, Pamela Horton, and James and Pamela Bryant. Enjoy settling into your new homes — we look forward to getting to know you.

The monthly HOA meeting was held Thursday, May 28. Lee McGauley shared a sample of signage for the pathway behind Wildwood Drive and East Wildwood Circle. The cost for eight signs would be $200, which is far less than the $25,000 estimate for a fence. Ken Rankhorn spoke about the fiber-optics system and hopes to have more information to share at the June board meeting.

Several houses are still for sale in Riverwoods, some for more than a year. We were reminded that as long as you own a house in Riverwoods, you are responsible for paying the monthly homeowner's fee.

There was also discussion about mowing fenced yards. The rule remains that if your yard has a fence, the fenced area will not be mowed by the yard service. There are no exceptions, even if the fence has a large open gate. The contract with North Florida Property Solutions was priced with fenced yards excluded.

The next meeting will be Thursday, June 25. Donna Plant closed the meeting by reading Psalm 91, "He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the LORD, 'My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust'" (Psalm 91:1–2)!

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

ART GALLERY EXHIBIT: AMERICAN FLAG AND USA DOCUMENTS
Submitted by Chuck Eckel

In honor of Memorial Day, Flag Day on June 14, and Independence Day on July 4, the display of the American flag and copies of historic U.S. documents has returned to the Art Gallery area near the Lopin' Gopher Deli.

The focal point of the display is the beautiful American flag created here at ACV. The flag was sewn by Joy Whitmore — our own Betsy Ross. ACV veterans and members then signed the white stripes. The blue field with white stars was sent to Iraq for signatures from active-duty service members and later returned to ACV. Lt. Col. (Ret.) James P. Bertolino, son of Barbara Bertolino, was serving in Iraq in 2010 and gathered signatures from those serving with him. The flag traveled to Iraq and back as a symbol of support. We thank our troops then and now, and we continue to pray for the men and women who honor our flag and our country.

Along with the flag, you will see copies of historic documents that helped shape our nation and set the framework for the rights, privileges and responsibilities we enjoy as Americans. Included are The Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and the Gettysburg Address by President Abraham Lincoln. The documents are beautifully framed for display.

Also featured are watercolor paintings by Jim Whiteside of Carter House, honoring the American flag. Special thanks to Paul Cook, who hung the display.

FEEDING THE DUCKS
Submitted by Carole Kueppers

Feeding bread to ducks is harmful. It acts like junk food, filling their stomachs without providing necessary nutrition. This can lead to malnutrition and a debilitating condition called "angel wing," which permanently deforms their wings and prevents them from flying. Uneaten bread also pollutes water and attracts pests.

The best things to feed wild ducks (that you probably already have in your refrigerator or pantry) are defrosted frozen peas or corn, rolled oats, and chopped lettuce. These provide essential vitamins while closely matching the natural diet ducks forage for in the wild.
